FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2021 Auto Award Finalists Announced

The Motor Trades Association of Queensland (MTA Queensland) is thrilled to announce the finalists for the 2021 Industry Awards have been confirmed, with some truly deserving nominees recognised for their contributions to the automotive industry.

Returning for the first time since 2019, the Industry Awards represent an opportunity to recognise and acknowledge the achievements of individuals and businesses in the Queensland automotive industry doing great things to promote the best interests of the industry. With many MTA Queensland member businesses showing great commitment and excellence in the face of adversity over the last 12 months, the calibre of nominations for the awards are as high as they have ever been.

The award categories celebrated at the Industry Awards Gala include:

- Community Award – presented to an individual or member business who is a role model in their community.
- Innovation Award – presented to an innovative individual or business that is supporting or implementing emerging technologies in the automotive or mobility industry.
- Women in Industry Award – presented to an outstanding female leader or business achieving success through their commitment to driving change in the automotive or mobility industry.

for the Gold Coast chapter of Future Females, and often acts as a panel facilitator for the event.

Tracy Randall (Anzac Avenue Wreckers, Toowoomba) – Tracy is a successful businessowner and owner of member business Anzac Avenue Wreckers. Tracy also sits on the committee of the MTA Queensland Automotive Parts Recycling Division in the position of secretary and is regularly involved in the Toowoomba community advocating for opportunities for females in the trades.

The finalists for the Apprentice of the Year Award are made up of the 12 MTA Institute Apprentice of the Month winners from the year preceding the Industry Awards Gala and will be announced shortly.

"It is extremely exciting to see the sheer talent, ingenuity and spirit on display from our valued members throughout the Queensland automotive industry," said MTA Group CEO Rod Camm. "The industry has experienced extraordinarily difficult conditions over the last 18 months at the hands of the COVID-19 pandemic, and to be able to bring the industry together to recognise our member businesses who have gone above and beyond is incredibly important. I look forward to celebrating the success of all our finalists in person at the Industry Awards Gala on Saturday 20th November."

MTA Queensland thanks platinum event partners BUSY At Work, Spirit Super and Capricorn for their support of the Industry Awards Gala.
